What is custom user dictionary?

A user custom dictionary is a functionality for the end users that allows them to create dictionaries with custom words such as complex words, acronyms, and proper names. All the words added to a personal dictionary will not be considered misspellings and will also be available in the suggestions list.

This functionality is available for both Cloud-based and Server versions of the WebSpellChecker products.